The Lost Series

The Lost Series | An exhibition of drawings by Virginia Fifield
September 24 - October 20, 2010

The “lost Series” was created to capture and express the powerful emotions experienced in moments and times of extreme challenge: Anger, Fear, Bewilderment, and Aggression. These drawings are mediations on what happens when our world is suddenly changed, everything has been lost or taken away. Portrayed through the lost dog, I seek to express those feelings that move us to change, to question our belief systems, our values and ultimately to the deeper questioning of our relationship to this world.
